

	MON 18 NOV Human Development/Children and Youth/Health/ Education	TUE 19 NOV Food, Agriculture and Water	WED 20 NOV Urbanisation/Transport/Tourism	THU 21 NOV Nature and Biodiversity/Indigenous People/ Gender Equality/Oceans and Coastal Zones
9:00	09:00 - 10:30: MERI Success stories for sustainable education focusing on teachers	09:00 - 10:30: MERI An effective model for nature conservation to meet the 2030 targets		09:00 - 10:30: JOINT EVENT Ancestral skills and climate change: Learning from our ancestors (09:00 - 10:30)
10:00			10:00 - 11:30: WMO Enhancing Water Resources Knowledge for Climate Action	Power, Knowledge &amp; Governance. Exploring power dynamics in (climate) knowledge (10:45 - 12:00)
11:00	11:00 - 12:00: MERI Innovation, digitalisation and Climate Change, a space to conquer	11:00 - 12:30: MERI Financing the Triple Crisis: When costs are an investment		Climate Science: How do we think and feel about it? (12:15 - 13:30)
12:00
13:00	12:30 - 13:30: MERI Climate crisis or human crisis? The urgency of moving towards a global understanding of environmental problems		12:30 - 13:30: WMO What if water could talk? - An art performance by Meeting of Waters
14:00	14:00 - 16:00: IPCC Towards a robust economic and policy assessment for Working Group III: ways to improve in AR7	14:00 - 15:30: MERI Integrated strategies for sustainability	14:00 - 15:30: MCTI How Can Societies Better Use Scientific Data to Support Public Policies?	14:00 - 16:30: JOINT EVENT Communication, Creativity & Storytelling Solutions (14:00 - 15:00)
15:00				Intergenerational Dialogue: Demanding Accountability (15:15 - 16:00)
16:00		16:00 - 18:00: MERI An integrated approach: Gender responsive Nature-based Solutions for Climate, Nature and People		Closing &amp; Call to Action (16:00-16:30)
17:00	16:30 - 18:00: UNESCO From Insight to Action: Advancing Scientific Frontiers through the Intergovernmental Hydrological Programme			16:30 - 18:00: MERI Advancing NbS and Ecosystem-based Approaches for Adaptation: Successful practices and lessons from the field (16:30 - 18:00)
18:00
19:00
20:00				