

Climate Science Information for Climate Action (CSICA)

Strengthening global capacity to use climate science for climate action, planning, and investments

WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION

NOVEMBER 2021 - AUGUST 2026

1.2M  US$

INVESTMENT

Strengthening the capacity of all stakeholders, including UNFCCC Parties, GCF Accredited Entities (especially Direct Access Entities), National Designated Authorities, ITAP, the Secretariat, and other climate finance and development partners, to integrate climate science into policies, plans, and investments at scale.

GLOBAL COVERAGE

OUTPUTS

- Partnerships and Stakeholder Engagement
- Maintenance and enhancement of the Climate Information Platform (CIP), Climpact and other technical resources
- Capacity development for stakeholders
- Hands-on support for specific implementation cases
- Strategic Information for Policy and Finance

FOCUS AREAS

Forecasting

Early Warning

Climate Data Management

Service Delivery

Capacity Development

SMHI

Learn more

