

RA VI Members Perspective: Hungary

Practical examples of current needs/offers and platform expectations

Róbert Tóth

HungaroMet Hungarian Meteorological Service

18 June 2026

WORLD
METEOROLOGICAL
ORGANIZATION

Introduction and Context

- Róbert Tóth / HungaroMet
- Expert of meteorological observations
- Participation in the RA VI Support Exchange Platform
  - HungaroMet is carrying out a DIMOP+ project > dissemination of the knowledge learned
  - HungaroMet has been a Regional Radiation Centre since 1978

Offer Details: 1

- Title: DIMOP+
- Description: Developing an environmental monitoring system using installed data collection network and creating a climate data repository with associated service environment
- Category (Training, Technical Assistance, Equipment, Collaboration)
- Why is this offer important? Exchange of experiences is important for Members planning development of their meteorological monitoring system
- Required by
- Available until: for now open-ended

Offer Details: 2

- Title: Regional Radiation Centre
- Description: Calibration of pyr heliometer, piranometer, pyrgeometer and UV-meter
- Category: Technical Assistance
- Why is this offer important? Not all Members possess proper reference instruments for doing professional calibration
- Required by: offered mainly for neighbouring countries
- Available until: for now open-ended

Platform Expectations

- Value of Support Exchange Platform for our Service and for RA VI as a whole? > Good opportunity to connect the requests and offers
- What would you like the platform to achieve during the pilot phase? > Some successful examples
- What would success look like for your Service after one year of implementation? > Some satisfied Members we could help

Thank you for your attention!

